

Business Application & Systems Analysis

Capabilities

- Functional Requirements and Phasing Plan - documents the functional requirements in the form of Business Questions. This section also presents a logical phasing plan for development of the requirements.
- Current Technical Environment - analyze the current environment, emphasizing strengths and weaknesses of current tracking, easy of use, and reporting capabilities that exist now.
- Recommended Future Architecture and Tools - recommend architecture and tools to enable the functional environment as per the requirements. We will also provide guidance on phasing to the final environment.
- Implementation, Maintenance and On-Going Operations - outlines key implementation steps that must occur to development the defined functionality and move toward the future state architecture.